

THE NUGGETEER

March 2010

Vol. 4 No.3

A message from the president

Greetings Fellow Prospectors,

The harsh grip of winter is keeping most of us from getting out and finding that good yellow gold. Hopefully we can get out a little in April as some of us will be going over to Grand Junction. We need to get started on getting our new claims staked out.

Our vice-president, Joel Sorensen has donated 4x4's so that we can mark the corners. If you can get away for a couple of days, we can sure use your help. Step up and volunteer. Your club needs your help.

For those great members who helped with last months bake sale, our thanks go out to you. To those who forgot or didn't know about it, we are repeating the bake sale for the April meeting on April 7th. Bake, or bring a baked good for our sale. Please!!

At our board meeting, a number of new ideas were brought up. Be sure to make the April 7th meeting to hear some great new plans for our club. Remember, this is your club. Be sure to bring some baked goods. Thanks again. See you at the meeting.

Ron Woods,
President COSGPAA

Let's get
